

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AT FOTCO

FOTCO plays a significant role in the development of the region in which it operates.

CSR has been engraved in all what we do. At FOTCO we strongly believe in the principle of corporate social responsibility, taking into account the interests of all stakeholders including their employees, customers, local authorities and communities. We take full responsibility of the actions we take and implement initiatives that are aimed at supporting the social, cultural, environmental and economic development of our surroundings.

We consider honesty and constructive collaboration with all our stakeholders to be an important part of our dynamic development while contributing significantly in sustainable social development. We recognise that our surroundings and stakeholders are key issues for our business both now and in the future, and that we cannot operate independently of them.

The Company's main activities in the field of corporate social responsibility are as follows: health & safety, environment and people.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Due to the nature of our operations, Health and Safety remains a main priority and an on-going challenge for the Company.

We continue to work on installing a strict safety culture in all aspects of our operations.

ENVIRONMENT

A responsible attitude towards the environment is one of the key components of our corporate social responsibility approach and an important factor in the stable, long-term vision of FOTCO. The Company strives to comply strictly with all applicable requirements of environmental law in the regions where we operate, and always remain ahead of these regulations.
